

TRAINING IN PERFECTING YOUR ACTING SKILLS - FRANCE

Training in the profession of stage acting

In 2014, the Fontainebleau School of Acting, (FONACT) opened its doors to offer professional training in acting and public speaking. In 2022 Fonact opened its second campus in Athens. FONACT's teaching method is inspired by the Anglo-Saxon theatrical tradition. This particularity makes it possible to respond rapidly to changes in the labour market and especially to the internationalization of job offers. FONACT provides professional training for all different kinds of opportunities in the acting profession. Within its framework, FONACT also opens its training to public speaking in general.

Training in Perfecting your Acting Skills (4 weeks)

Target Audience and application conditions

The course is open by application to anyone over 18 with a B1+ level in English.

Training Objective

The objective of the training is to provide trainees with tools to improve their stage acting through exercises in vocal technique (articulation, resonance, breathing capacity, tone, singing) and movement technique (appropriating a space for exchange, use of space in relation to an audience, tension identification etc.) and through scenarios.

On completing the training, participants will have deepened and developed their oral and physical approach to stage play. They will have the tools to manage the stress incurred by acting in public, to be able to control their interactions on stage.

Duration and Organisation

The training is made up of 180 hours over four weeks.. Classes are held in full groups, half-groups and individually. Each trainee promotion has a minimum of 10 participants and a maximum of 22 participants.

Premises and Access

Classes take place in the FONACT training centre, adapted and suitable to welcome people with reduced mobility and/or disabilities. For more detailed information, please contact us.
